Among other things, you are required to make a number of choices concerning which subjects to pursue out of the many on offer. Of all the decisions you make, the most crucial of all will be the institution you choose. That is what will set you apart.

Kinnaird is one of the oldest colleges for women in Pakistan and its rise to prominence for over more than a century has been a cumulative result of many factors including the contribution of dedicated teachers and the enthusiasm and creativity of its students.

Kinnaird offers a combination of academic programs in the Arts, Social Sciences and the Sciences. Its excellent set up of clubs, societies and a meaningful community service program provide integral forums for out of classroom learning, social interaction, leadership training and personal development.

I am sure you will find Kinnaird a stimulating and a supportive place in which to shape your future. We believe that real education has the power to transform lives at any and every age and so we commit ourselves to develop intellectual capacity, sense of purpose, leadership abilities and a commitment to social responsibility in our students.

This academic year might be very different for all of us and we might not be able to welcome you physically due to the corona pandemic. However we sincerely hope and pray that the worse will be behind us when you begin and the campus will again be full of life and vigor.

Prof. Dr. Rukhsana David
Kinnaird is one of the esteemed colleges for women in Pakistan and we are proud of its history and present achievements.

The name Kinnaird comes from Lady Mary Kinnaird who belonged to a titled family of Scotland. During the British period in India, certain British philanthropic enterprises, run by educated and sometimes very wealthy women from UK, worked for the education of women in India. Education was also a significant agenda for the family of Lady Kinnaird, who was politically involved with India. Her husband and her son successively were Chairmen of the committee that spoke on Indian issues in the British parliament.

The Kinnaird family raised financial support and even donated personal funds and thus the college evolved in 1913 from within Kinnaird High School which was already in existence. Today Kinnaird ranks as a premier institution of Pakistan for education of women, where over 2000 students are enrolled every year.

The college shifted to its present location in 1938 and is home to more than 5000 girls who study at the college. The beautifully laid out gardens provide a charming setting for the twenty acre campus.
This campus, owned by the parent body, the Association of Kinnaird College, provides a range of spacious study spaces in the original Main Academic Building, the adjoining Amaltas Block built in 2008, the McNair Science block, the New Science Block and the recently built Postgraduate Block. The classrooms are equipped with audio visual aids such as overhead projectors and LEDs. There are well equipped science and computer laboratories with access to the Internet and the Higher Education Commission digital library.
Kinnaird Library is providing a dynamic and interactive learning environment with its innovative and instructional programs, resources and services for faculty and students. Kinnaird Library holds a collection of more than 42,000 books and connectivity to over 20,000 journals and e-books across all subject areas. A computer section is built giving access to e-resources within the library premises to fulfill the research needs of our future scholars. A fully equipped special students lab with Braille books and Braille machines for visually impaired students is a valuable and remarkable addition in Kinnaird Library services. The Postgraduate Library caters to students at the graduate level and has the latest books on a wide range of disciplines. Kinnaird Library is a knowledge hub and door to independent learning for students and faculty members.
Accommodation

Residential facilities are available to students in three hostels custom built for the purpose. Apart from dormitories, each of the three hostels provides bedrooms for triple, double or single occupancy and its own common room. A central dining room is provided for the residents of all three hostels.
Along with providing excellent teaching facilities to students, Kinnaird adds an extra dimension by providing them an opportunity to become members of the student council, and the clubs and societies of the college. Students participate in a wide range of activities that exemplify the diversity of interests and talents within the college community and help students to be creative, develop their confidence, take initiatives and be prepared for real life situations.

Extra Curricular Activities
Kinnaird aims to provide high quality sports facilities and offers a blend of opportunities to compete, lead, and contribute to the community. Kinnaird hosted 1st International T-20 blind women cricket series between Nepal and Pakistan in 2019. A variety of sports facilities including cricket, hockey, basketball, football, table tennis, badminton, lawn tennis, and fitness center are available at campus.
